Hello All:

This letter is to inform you that the Western Coatings Society (WCS), the largest and oldest trade show for the coatings industry in America, is pleased to announce that Huzaifa Matawala, President of Regent Paints Inc, USA (Matawala Group of Industries) and founder/owner of The Paint Foundation will be one of the judges for the 2023 WCS Academic Posters. He has offered share his professional experience to evaluate research conducted by students who are the future of the coating industry.

This year we will have the largest number of schools sending participants with academic posters from undergrads, Masters and PhD programs. The students are coming from across American and even two from South Korea. Again, WCS is pleased to have the assistance of Huzaifa Matawala as a judge for the 2023 WCS Academic Posters.

Best regards,
